I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.
— Psalm 118:17

My dear friends in Christ,

HE IS RISEN!

He has defeated death and the gates of heaven have been opened wide for us! Now baptized into Christ, we can share fully in his victory and walk in freedom.

Truly, we all shall rejoice today! But what about tomorrow? How can we hold on to our Easter joy? We are now redeemed with new life and spirit. The one who died on Good Friday has been raised.

He is alive!

He is with us!

We celebrate!

That's why this Easter celebration must take deep root in our lives through a life of service and transforming love.

This is how we can hold on to our Easter joy.

This day and always, we rejoice with all the heavenly host for all what God has done for us by proclaiming that----HE IS RISEN!

May you have a blessed Easter!

In Christ,
Fr. Geoffrey

Alleluia!
Christ
is risen!

PROCLAIM THE RISEN CHRIST

On Easter morning everything—the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music—everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today's scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the Resurrection and sing "Alleluia!"

In the scriptures today we hear from Peter and Paul and John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John's Gospel account includes Mary of Magdala, who also was privileged to witness the Resurrection and tell others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday can we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive and active in our lives?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Paschal Mystery is the key to our Christian faith: the dying and rising of Jesus that is the pattern of our life. In their first steps on the road of faith, the catechumens feel the cross of glory traced over their eyes, on their lips, across their shoulders, on their ears, over their heart, and on their feet. The mystery is that even death gives way to life for those who are held in the embrace of Jesus. Today, many new Christians arise from the waters of the font. Yet the font is not the destination of their journey. The goal is Pentecost, fifty days from now, and a lifetime of praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Holy Spirit, for the sake of the world. "Neophyte," our ancient word for newly-baptized people, means "newly-planted" in Greek. If someone in your parish has just been baptized, welcome them today. The smiles on their faces and the light in the eyes is a foretaste of heaven.
