My Dear Friends in Christ:

Thank you!

Our 2010 St. Ann's Parish Festival theme: "Unity in Diversity" energized the parish community and united us in special ways as we celebrated the feast of our patroness, St. Anne. Through hard work, dedication and unity we enjoyed a wonderful and successful festival. Besides the fun, the laughter, the games, the singing and dancing, and the multiple cultural presentations, food and drink, this year's festival also brought in over $100,000.00 (gross). God is great!

Please join me in thanking, most especially, the Festival Committee this year, the Schola Cantorum, also known as the 8:00 o'clock Choir, and the Festival Committee Chairperson, Lori Ramin. They prayed and worked so hard planning and preparing for the Festival. Let us also thank all the volunteers and our sponsors for their hard work.

Our Parish Festival is a community event which simply means all are invited and encouraged to get involved. Once again your response is a big "Wow!" On behalf of Fr. Rick, Deacon Ben and Deacon Carlos, the Pastoral Staff, the Pastoral Council, and the Finance Committee, Thank you all from the bottom of my heart.

God bless....

Fr. Geoffrey Baraan, Pastor
