Parish Mission

We, the St. Anne Catholic Community, a transformed body of Christ with many parts, empowered by the Holy Spirit, will proclaim and spread the word of God:

- by creating an environment that welcomes all;
- by being faithful stewards of our time, talent and treasure;
- by celebrating God's love committed to giving food to the hungry, water to the thirsty,
- clothing to the naked, shelter to the homeless and
- by being the sign of unity and peace in the kingdom of God.

MESSAGE FROM FR. JUN

To my beloved St. Anne Community,

"In the midst of civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, peace has been preserved with all nations and order has been maintained..... No mortal hand worked out these things for they are gracious gifts of the Most High God, who remembered his mercy. It seems to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and one voice by the whole American people...to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and union."
(Pres. Abraham Lincoln 10/3/1863)

Thanksgiving Day is one important celebration in our country as one nation and as people of God. I am convinced, however that every day; in every single breath of life; that every time we open our eyes in the morning and smell the breath of nature we know we have something to thank God for.

Gratitude is the essence of thanksgiving. We ask God every single day to grow in us a grateful heart that we may acknowledge His greatness and love. Do not cease then to appreciate the blessings of life and the reasons of our existence: as faithful people of God I ask you to value the gifts of human friendships, the beauty of nature, the strength and health we enjoy and our ability to respond to others with gratitude, respect and affection. Gratitude is the key to happiness and peace.

As we celebrate the Thanksgiving Day let us also remember to give thanks to God's Commandments; we remember and give thanks for the Word and the Stories of Salvation handed to each succeeding generations and now written down under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit: we remember and Thank the Lord for His presence in our lives and through the powerful celebration of the Holy Eucharist, we should not fail to remember that this solemn Mass is in itself our humble act of Thanksgiving.

I am so grateful that I belong to Saint Anne Community.

May our Thanksgiving celebration be blessed, peaceful and joyful!!!

With my blessings,

Fr. Jun R. Manalo, Jr.
Parochial Administrator

A Blessed Thanksgiving to All!

DIVINE MERCY

He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people. (Mt 4:23) Christ's reign is a conquest not over political enemies but over the powers of sin and death. His rule is redemption. (Psalm 146) Let us give thanks for all our blessings and gifts. Please remember those less fortunate and make a gift as your THANKSGIVING to our Christ The King.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is the process by which adults learn about and experience what it means to be Catholic. If you are someone who has expressed an interest in learning about becoming Catholic, was baptized Catholic as a child but has not celebrated First Communion, was baptized in another Christian tradition and would like to explore what being Catholic is all about, then this process may be for you. Inquiry sessions are ongoing so you are welcome to participate in the process at anytime with your questions, your insights and your faith story.

For more information please contact Debbie Nunes, RCIA Coordinator at 510 471-7766 or email stanneadultfaithformation@gmail.com

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Among the Catholics seeking religious freedom in America were the Carrolls of Maryland, who arrived in 1649 from Ireland via England. Charles Carroll, born in Annapolis in 1737, was the only Catholic signer of the Declaration of Independence, and was the longest-surviving signer. As was the custom for English Catholics, he attended English schools in Belgium and later university in France. By the time he signed the Declaration, he was the richest man in America, and his decision to sign would hardly go unnoticed by the king.

Because Carroll was so wealthy and because he was a Catholic, he had more to lose than the others. Those who signed became traitors to the Crown and risked losing everything. It is said that someone grumbled that there were many men in the world named Charles Carroll, and he could dodge responsibility if he had to. For that reason, he added a flair to his signature, "of Carrollton," making it clear that he put everything at risk.

His cousin John, also an ardent supporter of the American Revolution, was ordained a Jesuit priest and returned to Maryland at the outbreak of hostilities. Upheavals in Europe forced the Jesuit order to dissolve, leaving Carroll a secular priest. Ultimately, it was John Carroll who was asked to organize the Catholic Church in the new nation. No one was better positioned for this task, a cultured man from an esteemed family, a cherished friend of Benjamin Franklin and George Washington, and a man so thoroughly attuned to an undercurrent of anti-Catholicism in the colonies that he could charm powerful people to a new point of view.

KINGSHIP

The book of Samuel recounts for us today the anointing of David as king of Israel. It was the elders of Israel who declared David king that day, but it was God who called David to shepherd Israel. Thus mandated by the citizens of his kingdom and by his God, David took his place in a long line of kings.

The apostle Paul speaks to us of kingship as well, but on a much higher plane: the kingship of Jesus our Lord. As great as David was, he and all earthly monarchs who came before and after him in their kingdoms around the world are minor kings by comparison to the true King. And lastly, we hear the story of that true King in perhaps his weakest moment: near death, hanging on a cross, taunted by a common criminal and by the world at large.
