THE HEAVENLY BANQUET

The mountain of the Lord described in today's first reading is a place where there is no more hunger, no more weeping, and no more division of any kind. We need to pause and ponder these images every now and then, especially given the fact that we live in such a fractured world. The responsorial psalm continues to paint a picture of a place where only goodness and kindness flourish. These readings describe the heavenly banquet, to which God calls each of us through baptism and continues to call us throughout our lives. Let us "RSVP" to God's invitation and live our lives consistent with gospel values so that one day we will be welcomed to the table of the kingdom.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In 1971, the Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship completed a survey of the presidents of the national liturgical commissions around the world. How were children doing in the liturgical reform? Probably to their surprise, the cardinals learned of special weekday Masses for children designed to teach them how to participate on Sunday, Masses with separate components for children. The decision was made quickly to develop adaptations for Masses where children were a majority of the assembly. Changes would include a simpler structure, understandable texts, a simplified Lectionary, more active participation, and most surprisingly, new Eucharistic Prayers. By 1973 the work was done, and with very specific advice from Pope Paul VI, including the need for two new Eucharistic Prayers, the Directory for Masses with Children was published on December 20, a timely Christmas gift for the children of the world.

The prayers are the first to be written fresh in a modern language—not Latin, but French and German—then translated into English, Italian, and Spanish. With a sense of caution, these new prayers were approved for three years, until 1977, but it soon became apparent that they had truly been embraced.

GOD'S GOODNESS

Let us throw ourselves into the ocean of God's goodness, where every failing will be cancelled and anxiety turned into love.

—St. Paul of the Cross

ST. ANNE DIVINE MERCY APOSTOLATE

Jesus to St Faustina) The very inner depths of My being are filled to overflowing with mercy, and it is being poured out upon all I have created. My delight is to act in a human soul and to fill it with My mercy and to justify it. My kingdom on earth is My life in the human soul. Write My secretary, that I Myself am the spiritual guide of souls—and I guide them indirectly through the priest, and lead each one to sanctity by a road known to Me alone. (Diary, 1784) Lord Jesus, may you be the Spiritual Guide of my soul.

Saint Anne Youth Ministry 2017-2018

St. Anne Youth Ministry will meet on Monday, October 16th at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. The topic and theme for our gathering will be "The Gift of Hospitality, Welcoming the Stranger." Good youth ministry offers every young person of St. Anne's an opportunity to explore their faith. Youth gatherings provide wonderful opportunities for young people to learn, think, pray, and play together. One of the challenges in youth ministry is to create a strong community without being exclusive. Our time together will explore the gift of hospitality and challenge us to make each youth ministry event a place of welcome for whoever walks through the door.

If you have not registered for Youth Ministry yet this will be the last day for registration, Monday, October 16.

Regional High School Catholic Youth Rally

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is the process by which adults learn about and experience what it means to be Catholic. If you are someone who has expressed an interest in learning about becoming Catholic, was baptized Catholic as a child but has not celebrated First Communion, was baptized in another Christian tradition and would like to explore what being Catholic is all about, then this process may be for you. Inquiry sessions are ongoing so you are welcome to participate in the process at anytime with your questions, your insights and your faith story.

COMMUNION YEAR 1 (CP): For 107 students who are in their first year of Formation and attend MONDAY sessions Reconciliation: Go, Seek, Find and Discover God's Treasure: WE TRUST IN GOD'S MERCY - Children reflect on the "Parable of the Lost Son". This parable is a story not only about our human weaknesses but about God's loving-kindness or mercy, for all of his children. Each time we pray the Our Father we are reminded of God's forgiving love and our call, as children of God, to share that forgiving love with others.

COMMUNION YEAR 2 (FC): For 107 students who are in their second year of Formation and attend TUESDAY sessions Eucharist: Go, Seek, Find and Discover God's Treasure: JESUS CARES FOR US - Holy Communion is a gift Jesus gives us to show that He cares for us, and that when we receive Holy communion, it helps us become more like Jesus and grow closer to God. Please keep our children in your prayers as they prepare for First Communion.
