and with all your mind.”

as Yourself

BALANCE

Today's scriptures emphasize the fundamental link between love of God and love of our neighbors, especially those who are most in need. Love of God should compel us to love the people whom God cherishes. Conversely, work for justice and charity for those in need should be rooted in our love of God.

That connection and balance, however, isn't always easy to maintain in our lives. Even in religious orders we find that some Christians are more oriented toward contemplation and prayer, while others are more active in reaching out to those who are oppressed. Today Jesus reminds us of the necessity for both in the life of faith.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This week we have in All Souls' Day a commemoration that is linked to the Halloween customs. The big-spending sugar shock holiday is a long way removed from Thursday's grateful remembrance of the souls who are hidden from our sight, but alive to Christ. Old pagan superstitions might find us holding our breath when going by the graveyard, whereas others might actually go to the cemetery to tend the family graves, to share good food, and remember dear ones. Nowhere does a culture embrace this day as fully as in Mexico. The "Day of the Dead" is a national holiday that unfolds over three full days.

For three thousand years, the indigenous people of Mexico have been mocking death in an annual festival, and the invading Spaniards were shocked at the spectacle. To the Aztecs, life was a dream, and death was the entry into full life. Skulls were thus a symbol of joy and release from life's sorrows. The missionaries found all this a bit creepy, but they moved the three-day feast from August to synchronize it with the Christian calendar. So today, graves are decorated, altars are built in the home to honor the family dead, children feast on candy skulls, and people dress up in elaborate skeleton outfits. The devout spend hours in the cemetery, and there is a lively sense of the communion of saints, the living and the dead.

Saint Anne Youth Ministry 2017-2018

St. Anne Youth Ministry will meet on Monday, October 30th at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. The topic and theme for our gathering will be From Jack O' Lanterns to Faith-Filled Heroes! Halloween, All Saints and All Souls Day- -What's It All About!"

What do we believe about Halloween? Is it wrong to celebrate Halloween? Do we really worship saints? What are these days all about? This Youth Ministry night explores a Catholic Christian approach and understanding of Halloween, All Saints Day, and All Souls Day. Feel free to wear a mask, costume or bring some candy to share for the evening!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is the process by which adults learn about and experience what it means to be Catholic. Inquiry sessions are ongoing so you are welcome to participate in the process at anytime with your questions, your insights and your faith story.
