Holy Week

Holy Week Message from Fr. Jun

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Pope Francis in his Lenten message said “

The Lenten period of forty days spent by the Son of God in the desert of creation had the goal of making it once more the garden of communion with God that it was before the original sin.”

Our life must above all be rooted from our sharing in Christ’s virtues; His divine love. Christ’s love is the supreme gift of grace that the Holy Spirit pours forth within our hearts and so enabling us to love and to forgive. However, love can grow cold in our communities.

The Apostolic exhortation “Evangelii Gaudium, (#4) describes that “the most evident signs of the lack of love are the following: the selfishness and spiritual sloth, sterile pessimism, the temptation of self-absorption, constant warring among themselves and worldly mentality that makes us concerned only for appearances and thus lessens the missionary zeal.”

Many Catholics have had their faith shaken by the recent challenges and scandals our diocese and others have been facing. Maybe some of us are asking what’s happening in our church today. The church is a divine institution in human hands where sin is experienced however, the more the grace of God prevails.

The parable of the wheat and the weeds show that both would exist not only in the world but in the church.

Lent hence is an encouraging period of deepening our spiritual life through the means of sanctification offered to us by the Church. Fasting, Prayer and Almsgiving are three essential factors that can help us deepen our relationship with God and others. Yet the basis of a successful Lenten journey is the Word of God put into action.

In this period, I humbly summons all to offer reparation and invocations particularly to all priests: To fast and make personal sacrifices in reparation for the agony suffered by the innocent. As Pope Francis said in his “Letter to the People”: “The penitential dimension of fasting and prayer will help us as God’s peace to come before the Lord and our wounded brothers and sisters as sinners imploring forgiveness and the grace of shame and conversion.”

Like Jesus Christ who submitted Himself to the Father, let us do the same. Let us surrender our worries to God and let His Holy Spirit lead us to the glorious event of the Resurrection of life.

Therefore, this day, we have to make our choice for God visible and lasting. We live as children of God, redeemed and saved. Hence when the Lord looks in the direction of those among us who are poor; when looks in the direction of those among us who are hungry; those who are weeping; those among us who are hated, insulted, He is reminding us that the choice that they have made is the right one and that we should continue to live according to that fundamental choice placing all our TRUST in God alone.

In prayers and faith carrying our own crosses, let us all walk forward to the Calvary of God. With the Love and mercy of the One crucified may our Lenten journey be filled with his light that gives life.

Blessings,

Fr. Jun Manalo

THE STORY OF OUR REDEMPTION

We begin the final week of Lent with these familiar readings. This year, we hear the Passion from the Gospel of Luke. These readings for Palm Sunday and the Passion used to be read on successive Sundays. Now they are combined into a single feast, so that we may see the whole sweep of the glory and the suffering played out. Jesus accepts the adulation of the crowd, the foreshadowing of his glory in the Resurrection. He bids farewell to his disciples in his last Passover, and forgives his tormentors as he dies on the cross. Later this week, we enter the Holy Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, when the whole story of our redemption will play out once again.
