Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time August 11, 2019

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
—Psalm 33:20

FAITH AND HOPE

Faith and hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me."

We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament. We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agajanian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharistic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, "But we've always done it this way," you are on very thin ice indeed!

POSSIBILITIES

All things are possible for one who believes, more to one who hopes, even more to one who loves.

—St. Lawrence

NOT EASY

Faith makes all things possible—it does not make them easy.

—Anonymous

CYO BOYS BASKETBALL

Our 2019-20 boys CYO basketball season begins in November and we are currently looking for a new boys athletic director to get things started. After 12 years, I am stepping down as athletic director. I am very proud of our CYO program and I would like to see it thrive so I will definitely help our new AD learn the process along the way. It is imperative that we find someone or else we may lose the program altogether. Also, it does not have to be just one person, many parishes have multiple AD's. Our CYO program is an important branch of our youth ministry and as athletic director you will find that it is very rewarding, fun and fulfilling. Please let me know if you or someone you may know may be interested. Contact Ron Tria at ron.tria@gmail.com with any questions.

Adult Faith Formation

What is Adult Faith Formation?

The Church's catechetical mission aims to help the faithful grow in both human and Christian maturity, enriching the whole of life with the leaven of the Gospel. Our Adult Faith Formation consists of three components: RCIA, Adult Confirmation, and Ongoing Formation. We aim to build and nourish the faith life of all adults yearning to deepen their relationship with God.

RCIA—The Rite of Christian Initiation

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (commonly known as the RCIA) is the normal way in which adults become full, active, participating members of the Catholic Church. If you, a friend, or family member is interested in becoming catholic, the RCIA is here to fulfill that yearning. Have you, a friend or family member received the sacrament of Baptism in the Catholic Church or another faith, but have not received First Communion and Confirmation? This track is also supports your full initiation.

RCIA will begin in September. Sessions are typically held on the First, Second and Third Sundays beginning at 12:00PM.

Adult Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation is commonly the final Sacrament of Initiation that confirms our Baptism. A large number of Catholics have received the Sacraments of Baptism and First Communion, but, not Confirmation. Many don't realize this until they register to be a valid Godparent and are advised they must be fully initiated Catholics. Our Adult Confirmation program is here to help you fully enter the Catholic Church. This program begins in October and lasts 3 months. Sessions are typically held on the First, Second and Third Wednesday evenings at 7:30PM. Be sealed with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit!

Ongoing Formation

This program is here to support our faith journey with Christ. Whether it be diving deeper into our faith, breaking open the Word of God, strengthening our knowledge so we can better support our Children's faith journey, this program offers several opportunities to journey with one another. We are not in this journey alone. Ongoing Formation sessions will be held year round on a variety of topics. Schedules will be published on our website, parish bulletin and bulletin boards. Sessions will typically be held Tuesdays at 7:30PM

Come journey with us!
