Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord April 12, 2020

When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

— Colossians 3:4

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

Today we celebrate the Triumph of the Cross!

The Paschal Candle is once again lit with the Blessed fire: a symbol of Christ's Triumph over death. He is the Light that enlightens the Church. It means that the One who was hung on the Cross has brought light to a world suffering in its own darkness. We have risen to new life; the life of baptism; the life of the Risen Lord:

In this unusual and unprecedented time", it is our faith that transforms our actions and concern into compassion for one another." To be people of hope and promise.

What Jesus did for us His brokenness have so much meaning when we remember our own brokenness: in this time, we know we are not really the ones in control. That we are confronted to get down to the very core of our spirituality: to the very foundation of who we are and what we believe.

We still gather as community at a distance through online worship services and daily prayer. However, amid dark time, we hold on spiritually. Our determination to pray together to lighten up the load for one another through social distance activities, speak of what we truly believe: that God is with us.

Our faith leads us to the same Cross and Paschal Candle to unity and to fulfill the mystery of God's unconditional love and mercy. The birth of spring is a powerful sign of the new life God promises us. We have indeed the reason to be joyful amid darkness.

I therefore want to say CHRIST OBEDIENCE IS VICTORIOUS IN DEATH!

Let me take this wonderful event in our lives to express my gratitude and love to the pastoral staff and friends who have worked so hard and selflessly, during this time and beyond. Thank you to the family at home who have been faithfully joining us in the sacramental and spiritual activities via live stream. Thank you so much for the food being offered for us. The concern and gestures of appreciations. And to those who have been helping the Parish through online giving as well as those who dropped off their donations in the office, y sincerest gratitude.

We miss you so much and we hope and pray that one day we will celebrate the mystery of God together in the Church. Happy Easter brothers and sisters.

Blessings,

Fr. Jun

CHRIST HAS RISEN

Where is your sting, O death? Where is your victory, O hell? Christ has risen, and you are overthrown. Christ has risen, and the demons have fallen. Christ has risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ has risen, and life reigns. Christ has risen, and not one dead rests in the grave. For Christ having risen from the dead became the first-fruits of them that slept. To him be glory and majesty to ages of ages. Amen.
